

WARNING – PHISHING SCAM

It has come to our attention that many people have received a notice like the one below. Please be advised that this is not a communication from E-ZPass, but is likely a phishing scam. We advise you not to open or respond to that message. If you have any questions about the validity of any message received from E-ZPass, please contact the E-ZPass Customer Service Center for guidance.

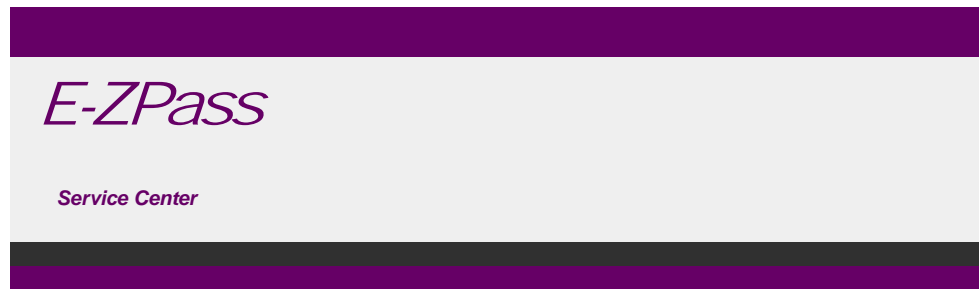

Also, the FBI has confirmed they have received a number of complaints on this matter to date and have “opened a case file”. Should you receive the phishing e-mail please file a complaint at www.ic3.gov. This site is dedicated to sharing information on internet crimes across law enforcement agencies.
